Dear Mr Gruenberg:

I am writing because I am deeply concerned by the prospect of a Bank of Walmart.

Walmart has total disregard for it's employees, distributors and even, it's customers. Their only real concern is being the largest, money-making conglomerate in the world. They will hire anyone off the street as long as they can pass a drug test, pay them a starving wage so the employee has to depend on the state for food stamps and medical care.

They threaten, intimidate and fire anyone who is even thinking about starting a union or else, they simply do away with that dept. Is this a company that you want owning a bank? Walmart puts it's employees into poverty and keeps them there. I urge you to prevent the establishment of the Bank of Walmart. Please consider this matter very carefully as this would have grave consequences of all Americans.

Regards,
Shirley A. Garrett
